CINDY GRANDSTAFF ... Has Real Birthday

'Sweet 16' On Fourth Birthday

"Sweet Sixteen" on her fourth birthday. That's the exceptional bit of statistic claimed by Miss Cindy Grandstaff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Grandstaff, 1917 W. 220th St.

Cindy's birthday is on Feb. 29 and this year for the fourth time in her 16 years she has had a real birthday. Every other year the celebra-tion has been held on Feb. 28.

On Saturday evening, her Feal birthday, the Torrance High sophomore was honored at a family dinner.

Joining her and her par-

Last Easter I began to date a fine young man. On New Year's Eve he asked me to marry him.

I am afraid to say yes be cause of my past. The shock would probably kill him be-cause he thinks I am a saint. I'm almost sure if he knew the truth about me he would end the relationship at once.
You always advise girls against confessing their past indiscretions. Does this hold in my case? I need your help.
—EX TRAMP

Dear Ex: An out-of-wedlock child is more than an indiscretion. Don't marry the man without first filling him in on this vital bit of history. The fear of being found out, plus the guilt of having deceived him, could ruin the marriage.

If he can't tolerate the knowledge that you have a child it's better to know now.

Dear Ann Landers: If a man is dining with his mother and his wife in a restaurant and a business acquaintance stops at the table, should the man introduce his wife or his mother first?

We have been arguing about this for two days and need your answer — YOU.
